Profit from the experience.

The Fine Arts Fiesta (FAF) is the oldest arts festival in PA. More than 60,000 people attend the four-day free event in downtown Wilkes-Barre.

Back-to-back performances, exciting exhibits and a delicious array of ethnic foods ensure a steady flow of people from the Northeast to your booth.

Apply today.

Complete and return the enclosed application form with a non-refundable $20 check made payable to "Fine Arts Fiesta."

Submit 5 color slides (4 showing 1 item, 1 showing an actual display of the work to be exhibited). Identify each slide with your name and price range. Number each slide to correspond with the written description. Slides will be returned if you provide an appropriately sized, SASE.

You can apply online (http://fineartsfiesta.org/strut-your-stuff/artists-market/) or submit jpeg photo files via email to jzdesdev@epix.net. Please label photos with your name and phone number so they match your application. Send completed application, with slides, fee and SASE to: The Artists' Market at Fiesta, 146 West River Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702.

Notification of acceptance or rejection will be mailed the week of February 26, 2012. The decision of the judges is final.

Eligibility

The FAF is open to all artists and craftspeople 18 years of age and older who create original work. No commercial molds, kit objects, decoupage, pre-manufactured components, etc. will be considered. Jurors and the FAF reserve the right to determine the eligibility of all objects submitted for jurying. The FAF attempts to show a reasonable number of each of the fine arts and crafts.

Awards

Cash awards are presented for Best of Show in Fine Arts, Crafts, along with Honorable Mentions in each category at the judge's discretion at The Artists' Breakfast. All exhibitors receive an invitation.

Fees

Upon acceptance, a $180 exhibition fee to FAF is required by March 9, 2012. Late payments are not accepted. Exhibit fees are non-refundable after April 13, 2012.

Exhibition Space and Provisions

Exhibitors must supply their own 10'x10' tents and lights. FAF provides 110V electricity, water and comfort facilities. Parking is available nearby for a fee. Exhibitors must keep their area clean. Laptops can not be plugged into the power source.

Lodging

Exhibitors who live outside a 60-mile radius of FAF, are provided a subsidized single-occupancy hotel room on a first-come, first-serve basis for Thurs., Fri. and Sat. night for $80 (payable by March 9, 2012).

Demonstrations

We encourage exhibitors to demonstrate.

Judges

David James Francis Klevinsky teaches art at Misericordia University, Dallas, PA, and holds a MFA in ceramics from Marywood University.

Kim Malm is a painter who teaches at Lafayette College, Easton, PA, and holds a MFA with a concentration in painting from the University of Pennsylvania.

Security

FAF provides security from close until opening each day. Exhibitors acknowledge they are responsible for the care of their own work and display and that neither Luzerne County, the City of Wilkes-Barre, or FAF are responsible for the loss or damage of any works or display in the show or in overnight storage.

Standards

A Standards Committee reserves the right to request removal of any work not accurately represented by the slides to jury the craftsperson.

Publicity

Upon acceptance, please submit a jpeg photo of your work and a short bio describing you and your work with your exhibition fee, due Friday, March 9, 2012.
